North Pacific Seafoods, Inc. is recruiting 1 temporary full-time seasonal Fish Roe Technician to work for the entire work period from 3/15/2022 to 11/15/2022 for Alaska herring, salmon and pollock D fishing seasons. Work will be performed at land plant locations in Alaska in the following itinerary: Sitka from 3/15/2022 to 3/31/2022; Kodiak from 4/1/2022 to 6/20/2021; Sitka from 6/21/2021 to 6/30/2022; Togiak from 7/1/2022 to 7/15/2022; Kodiak from 7/16/2022 to 11/15/2022. Itinerary is approximate and subject to change depending upon fish availability.

Duties: Responsible for processing various fish roe including, but not limited to, roe from herring, pollock, cod, sockeye salmon, pink salmon, and chum salmon. Produces various fish roe products based on specie, quality, size, maturity and geographical area of the fishery. Roe may be sorted, salted, preserved, brined, seasoned, mixed, agitated, dewatered, refined, packed and frozen based on the roe type and market forecasts. Inspects roe for uniformity to company and customer specifications. Processes roe in the skein (Sujiko), removed from the skein (Ikura), and as green roe. Grades roe based on specie, size, quality, freshness, color and other characteristics according to the established market standard. Tests roe for quality and quantity standards. Freeze roe products without damaging quality, uniformity, and marketable appearance. Performs quality thawing tests on frozen products to maintain and control quality, market acceptance, and the highest price of products. Provide technical expertise in the production process, grading, quality control, specifications, and buyers inspections of roe products.

Must have 24 months of experience in job.

Will work 40 regular hours per week with up to 40 hours of overtime per week (everyday, from 9:00 am to 11:00 pm including overtime hours). Actual overtime hours and work schedule depend upon fish availability. Regular pay is $20.23 - $37.00 per hour depending on experience (DOE) and overtime pay is $30.35 – $55.50 per hour (paid at time and a half). A single workweek will be used to compute wages due. Wages will be paid every 2 weeks. The employer will make all deductions from the worker's paycheck required by law.

The employer guarantees to offer work for hours equal to at least three-fourths of the workdays in each 12-week period of the total employment period.

Transportation to the first work location from home or the place from which the worker departed to work for the employer, and transportation between the work locations will be arranged and paid directly by the employer at no cost to the worker regardless of the percentage of the completion of the employment period. Daily subsistence during any travels will be arranged and paid directly by the employer at no cost to the worker or its actual cost will be reimbursed to the worker within 7 days upon submission of receipt.

If the worker complete 50% of the employment period or are dismissed early by the employer, return transportation to home or the place from which the workers departed to work for the employer and daily subsistence during return travel will be arranged and paid directly by the employer or its actual cost will be reimbursed to the worker within 7 days upon submission of receipt, except where the worker will not return due to subsequent employment with another employer or where the employer has appropriately reported the worker's voluntary abandonment of employment.

Daily subsistence will be at least $13.17 per day during travel to a maximum of $55.00 per day with receipts.

On-campus dormitory-style shared housing and meals at each work location will be provided by the employer at no cost to the worker or its actual cost will be reimbursed to the worker within 7 days upon submission of receipt. Employer housing is optional. Employer does not subsidize housing and meal cost if the worker chooses to stay in off-campus housing. If the worker chooses to stay in off-campus housing, he/she will be fully responsible for his/her own housing, meals, and daily transportation to and from the work location.

The employer will provide the worker at no charge all tools, supplies, and equipment required to perform the job. H-2B worker will be reimbursed in the first workweek for all visa, visa processing, border crossing, and other related fees, including those mandated by the government (excluding passport fees).
